POTTY TRAINING:

Apollo hasn't had any new accidents and is doing very well!

CRATE TRAINING:

Although Apollo doesn't care for the crate, he will go in and is usually quiet the entire time (with or without visual of his people). He has improved a lot when it comes to entering the crate.

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS:

Apollo is a joy to have in the home. He does play a little rough with toys, so stronger ones would last longer, but he loves people and is a great little shadow to have.
